Reflecting on the Gospel

Jesus' entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11: 1-11)

The events of Holy Week begin with Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem riding on a donkey. Each of the three synoptic Gospels tells the story in a slightly different way, but the key idea remains the same. Drawing on imagery from the Old Testament, the Gospel writers make it plain that Jesus is entering Jerusalem as Messiah. Some local churches now capture the Palm Sunday theme by arranging a procession through the streets. Some of these processions include processional banners.

Our image to stimulate reflection on this passage is processional banners.

Extracts from the Gospel passage (Mark 11:7-9)

Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it;
and he sat on it.

Many people spread their cloaks on the road,
and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields.
Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,
'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David!
Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

Gospel prayer

Lord Jesus Christ,
you rode into Jerusalem to shouts of Hosanna.
Ride into our lives and accept our praise.
Hosanna to the Son of David,
Hosanna in the highest heaven;
Hosanna now and always.
Amen.

Mark 11: 1-11

Jesus' Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately."' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, 'Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!'

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

ENGAGING WITH THE THEME AT HOME

Reflecting and meditating

Reflect on Mark's account of Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11: 1-11):

- what details in the passage catch your attention?
- what big ideas does the passage spark in your mind?
- what most touches your heart in the passage?
- what most stretches your mind and makes you think in the passage?

Thinking and talking

- how do you read Jesus' instructions to find the colt?
- what do you make of Jesus' decision to ride the donkey?
- how do you understand the shout of 'Hosanna!'?
- what do you make of Jesus looking around the temple and then going away?
- how can we best understand the narrative today?

Using your Bible

Explore how the other two synoptic Gospels develop Mark's account of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem:

- Matthew 21: 1-12
- Luke 19: 29-45

Explore the Old Testament roots for the imagery in Mark's narrative (and see also 1 Maccabees):

- 2 Kings 9: 11-13
- Psalm 118: 26
- Zechariah 9: 9
- 1 Maccabees: 50-52

Exploring online

- explore Palm Sunday celebrations around the world

EXPLORING THE SUNDAY GOSPEL AT HOME

Each week we are inviting people in their homes to look forward to those Sunday services that follow the Revised Common Lectionary Gospel readings. We employ the SIFT approach (Sensing, Intuition, Feeling, and Thinking) to encourage reflection on the Sunday Gospel. We are suggesting a variety of ways in which people of all ages, and households working together, may engage with the Gospel reading and celebrate that engagement with shared activities.

Our invitation then is for you to share your reflections, prayers and photos of your creative work with the Cathedral by emailing them to Nelson.Pike@liverpoolcathedral.org.uk
